Welcome to Sydney!

Is Sydney for me?

- A cosmopolitan, iconic city with a fabulous climate
- All the benefits of city life, plus stupendous beaches
- A modern school in the heart of downtown Sydney
- You'll find our Sydney school in Darlinghurst, a lively central area packed with restaurants, shops, nightclubs, museums and parks. It's only a short distance to downtown and the most famous sights of Sydney: the Opera House, harbour bridge, Sydney Tower, and the Botanic Gardens.
- While enjoying everything the city has to offer, including its stunning average of over six hours of sunshine a day, you'll base your studies in our modern school. The building is shared with our sister establishments Charles Sturt University and Martin College, so it's a busy campus, filled with Australian and international students.

Welcome to Melbourne!

Is Melbourne for me?

- A cosmopolitan, thriving state capital
- A city-centre school with easy access to shops, restaurants and entertainment
- Chances to continue on to courses at Charles Sturt University
- Our Melbourne school is situated directly opposite Taylors College, our sister establishment, and Charles Sturt University- The school prides itself on offering the very latest in teaching and learning technology, and there are also opportunities to move on to degree courses at Charles Sturt University, if that is an area that interests you.
- You'll find us on a major Melbourne street, making for very easy access. The school's corner position means that the classrooms benefit from excellent natural light. Our school is only a short stroll from downtown, with its wealth of shops, theatres, cinemas and eateries
